STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS + ACTIVITIES

Students at KCAI often seem happiest when working late into the night in their studios, but opportunities abound for other types of experiences throughout the academic year. Below is a list and links to various student organizations.

AIGA
AIGA is KCAI’s chapter of the professional organization for design.

Archive Collective
The Archive Collective provides resources for photographers, including photo enthusiasts through screenings, publications, exhibitions, critiques and online photo discussions.

Art Play
ArtPlay is a student organization that marks the intersection of art and social action. Participants build creative skills and social awareness in the community through engaging with people, projects, organizing and managing volunteers and locating funding to support their vision.

Alternative Means
Alternative Means works to identify and understand our campus environmental impact and works along side the administration to make change regarding campus sustainability

Arts & Faith
An organization focused around the intersection of art and faith.

ArtSpace Advisory Council
The ArtSpace Advisory Council acts as collaborative liaisons between the ArtSpace staff and the student body.

Asian Heritage
Members of the Asian Heritage organization take an extensive outlook at Eastern arts and culture in order to encourage students to diversify the Asian identity as a means to embrace not only the traditional, but contemporary catalysts of Eastern expression and value.
BACC (Black Artist Culture & Community)
Students use their artistic talent to encourage cultural diversity through student leadership, mentorship, community service, and campus activities.

Black Lungs
The KCAI Black Lungs Soccer Club participates in the Kansas City Soccer Dome adult coed league.

Cause on Campus
Cause on Campus is a group affiliated with the Cause Church and meets on Wednesday evenings for Bible study.

KCAI Screening Room
This interdepartmental community aims to raise awareness and appreciation of cinema and to start a dialogue between class levels about time-based media. It’s for the cult film enthusiast and cinephile.

KCAIR
Using the online application Mixlr, KCAIR is a school broadcast that provides a platform for communal expression and an outlet for student thoughts and ideas.

LOCAL (Latino Organization of Culture, Arts & Language)
The organization’s mission is to spread awareness and appreciation of Latin American culture, arts and language throughout campus.

PLAY
The group promotes interdisciplinary, experimental animation by creating a liaison between the larger Kansas City animation community and students through guest lectures, studio visits, and off-campus gallery shows.

PRINT CLUB
The Print Club is dedicated to raising awareness on campus of printmaking and print media.
SAS (Students Against Sweatshops)
SAS is dedicated to inform KCAI about today's sweatshop labor force by means of movie screenings, discussions, and sewing sessions.

QUILTBAG APP
A QUILTTBAG APP (Aromantic, Queer, Undeclared, Intersex, Lesbian, Transgender, Two Spirit, Bisexual, Asexual, Gay, Ally, Polyamorous, Panromantic) strives to provide a safe space for discussion and moral support, promoting awareness and visibility among the group's own community and then within the campus and surrounding community by creating an atmosphere of acceptance, tolerance, self-pride, support and understanding.

The Illustration Student Committee
The Illustration Student Committee strives to facilitate an open and discursive relationship between students and faculty, and to push the standard of the Illustration department in order to foster a lasting sense of pride and accomplishment of both parties.

For more information and how to join KCAI STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS + ACTIVITIES, please contact Madeline Gallucci, campus activities and housing coordinator, at mgallucci@kcai.edu.