Sculpture Adjunct Instructor Position

KANSAS CITY ART INSTITUTE. Adjunct, two-semester, sabbatical replacement position. This two-semester part time position will pay $7200 per semester. The start date is August 15, 2016, and the candidate will teach sculpture major during the fall 2016 and spring 2017 semesters. The major studio class meets Mondays and Wednesdays 8:00 to 10:50 am and 12 -2:50 pm. The MFA is required, and college teaching experience is preferred. This position will teach juniors in sculpture. The teaching position includes assisting students in building conceptual coherency, developing an independent studio practice, professional practice which includes written and verbal communication, resumes, and creation of digital portfolios. The ideal candidate will be well versed in contemporary issues, art theory and practice and must be prepared to present and discuss these issues with students on a regular basis. This position must be able to address a wide variety of working modes including traditional and contemporary sculptural modes. The successful applicant will work with two faculty colleagues in student critiques and ensure safety and proper use of equipment and facilities.

To apply in Pdf:

Cover letter with teaching philosophy, CV and list of 3 professional references we may contact. Also include no more than 20 images of current work as digital files (jpngs @ 1024 x 768 pixels and resolution 72-150) and a similar set of images of student work.

Deadline for this position is: April 8, 2016.

Email: jobs+sculpsabbat 2016@kcai.edu

For Questions call 816-802-3433 or email hr@kcai.edu

Kansas City Art Institute is an Equal Opportunity Employer