

Sound Minor

Name of Policy: Application for Non-Studio Minors
Source: Academic Affairs
Date Revised: June 2026
Form to Complete: N/A

Policy:

Asian studies, Entrepreneurial Studies in Art & Design, Social Practice and Sound minors each require 15 credit hours of specific coursework. The minors are designed to be completed within 120 credits for students pursuing a single major BFA and within 135 credits for students pursuing a double major BFA. In addition to completing the required courses, students must also participate in department meetings and activities.

It is preferable that students declare their intent to pursue a non-studio minor at the end of their Foundation year, but no later than their second semester junior year.

Process:

Students can declare their intent to pursue a non-studio minor by:

- Checking the “yes” box for their chosen minor on the Major Declaration form (Foundation year students).
- Emailing the registrar’s office, stating their wish to pursue either the Entrepreneurial Studies in Art and Design, Social Practice or Sound minor and including the following information:
 - o Student ID Number
 - o KCAI Email Address
 - o Local Address
 - o Local Phone Number
 - o Studio Major

If students, at any time, decide not to pursue the minor, they must notify the Registrar: registrar@kcai.edu.
